John D Fader, 69, passed away on July 22, 2011 of cerebral hemorrhage, after a fall while at home recovering from several hospitalizations due to complications from congestive heart failure.

John (Skip) was born 9/30/41 to Jeannette and John H. "Curly" Fader in Boise ID. He graduated from Borah HS in '59, attended Boise JC then graduated from U of Colorado in '64 with a BSEE.

While attending CU he met his soulmate Mary Lynn Mitchell. He moved to CA where he worked for the LA dept of Water and Power for a few months before beginning 36 years in the defense industry with Hughes aircraft, McDonnell Douglas, Dynalectron, and Boeing. John and Mary Lynn were married Jan. 16, 1965 on the way to Europe for their first tour.

They would move 28 times to six different US states and six foreign countries before settling in Villa Park, CA in 1999 where he retired from Boeing in 2000 and began Fader and Fader LLC. He remained connected to Boise, most recently through his work as the communication liason for the 50th reunion committee, Borah class of '59.

He was preceded in death by his parents and sister, Carol Ann Robb, and son, John "Mitch" Fader.

He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Mary Lynn; his daughter, LynnDee and grandson, Tyler, of Seattle; cousins, Omar and Bev Fricke, of Meridian, and Barbara Smidt, of Boise.

A memorial service will be Aug. 3, 2001 at 2 PM at LOTC (lotc.org).
